Sermon Application:

How does the Amos principle, God revealing everything He does, and the fact that He will come as a thief in the night match up?

How can we be prepared even though we don't know the exact hour of Christ's return?

What insights did you gain about God's perspective of Jerusalem?

As Pastor Chuck covered the signs and things to come, what are your thoughts?

What evidences in our world today reveal the beginnings of these happenings?

If you were persecuted for your faith today, how well would you stand up to the test? What can you do to prepare for spiritual adversity?

What hope do we have, as Christians, in the face of these events?
