Discussion Questions for February 9th / February 10th

KICKING IT OFF: What is something that personally brings you awe in your life?

MEMORY VERSE: “But the godly will flourish like palm trees and grow strong like the cedars of Lebanon. For they are transplanted to the LORD’s own house. They flourish in the courts of our God. Even in old age they will still produce fruit; they will remain vital and green.”

Psalm 92:12-14

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Pastor Chuck quoted John Ortberg, “Languishing or just existing is the number one issue he sees occurring in our day and time.” Do you agree with this quote? Why or why not?
2. Read Psalm 92:12-14. Instead of languishing, God wants us to flourish and live life to the full. What are some things that lead people to “dry up” in the inside?
3. The remedy to just existing is having a sense of AWE in our lives. Why is AWE the foundation to being emotionally healthy?
4. Read Acts 2:43. According to this scripture what does God want for our personal lives? Do you believe that this is possible in our lives?
5. Why is believing that we are the “center of the universe” the biggest killer to being in a perpetual state of awe?
6. Read Psalm 8:1-4. What truth does this scripture remind us about? Why is recognizing this truth pivotal to seeing transformation happen in our personal lives?

7. Read Hosea 3:4-5. Why is Biblical prophecy a great way to experience AWE in our lives?

8. Read Romans 8:38-39. When we realize how good and Holy God is, we become aware of how sinful we are. This realization leads us to repentance and having a sense of AWE when it comes to how much God loves us. Have you experienced a sense of AWE about how much God loves you personally?

LIVE "LIFE" NOW:

Love Like Jesus Loves • Intentional Intimacy • Fully Surrendered • Experience More

God wants us to live in a perpetual state of AWE rather than languishing. This week take some time to personally reflect on where you are personally when it comes to living a life of languishing or a life of AWE. Create some space to go somewhere or do something that will help you to experience a sense of AWE.
