Discussion Questions for Week 1
Jan. 29th and Feb. 2nd, 2020

MEMORY VERSE OF THE MONTH: “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.”

James 4:8

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Share with the group: “What is something that God is personally doing in your life right now?”
2. What stood out to you the most about Becket’s powerful testimony?” Were there any similarities from his testimony and your personal testimony?
3. In his book, A Change of Affection, Becket Cook says this, “The overwhelming wonder of God’s infinite love is this: While I was broken and a failure, God came to rescue me. He came to love me, to redeem me, and to heal me from sin. Where I failed, Christ succeeded on my behalf.” What are your personal thoughts or feelings about what Becket wrote here?
4. Read Isaiah 6:4-7. Becket writes in his book, “God revealed his holiness to me, and I saw the utter depth of my sin in light of his holiness.” Have you personally experienced God’s holiness at this level? Why is holiness important so important to God?
5. While Becket was sharing his story here at Crossroads he said this, “When you don’t have absolute truth, you’re just flailing around in the dark.” What happens when people chose to make up their own version of the truth?
6. Read John 8:31-32, Proverbs 12:19, and John 14:6. What are examples of some truth that Jesus taught us as Christians?

LIVE “ITEL” NOW:

Intentional Intimacy • Total Surrender • Experience More • Love Like Jesus

7. In his story, Beckett shared that he looked for meaning in so many places and would leave frustrated. This week take some time to meditate on this questions, "Are there some areas in my life where I have been looking for meaning outside of Christ?" Make sure to share your thoughts with someone that you trust.
