LIVE “ITEL” NOW:

Intentional Intimacy • Total Surrender • Experience More • Love Like Jesus

We live in a world where so many people are overwhelmed with the pressures of every day life. We can't escape the pressure to make money.....or the pressure of finding a good balance between relationships and work. For many of us, the thought of having to do one more thing is overwhelming because there never seems to be enough hours in the day! But sometimes the best thing to do is to do nothing at all.

This week take a moment and do an “inventory” of where your time is being spent. Are there things that you are personally doing that are wasting your time? Are there things that you can remove to allow for more margin in your life?

Also, look at your schedule and find a good day for a regular Sabbath and start to observe it. Make sure to let your LIFE Group leader or someone you trust know so they can hold you accountable.
