

Fifth Grade

YOU HAVE APPROXIMATELY 416 WEEKS AND COUNTING

THIS YEAR YOU WILL PROVOKE DISCOVERY SO YOUR CHILD WILL TRUST GOD'S CHARACTER AND EXPERIENCE GOD'S FAMILY.

In this phase where friendships matter more, so does your kid's faith community. As your kid is in pre-teen ministry, look for ways to prioritize their church connection, and continue having faith conversations at home.

Your fifth grader can understand different points of view, empathize with others, and negotiate like a champ. That means one thing: Your influence is shifting. Your kid still needs you, but they are beginning to need you in a different way. If you want to engage their interests, then include peers, coach relational skills, and help your kid develop healthy friendships.

SAY THINGS LIKE...

- "How can I pray for you today / this week?"
- "Having faith isn't always easy, but we can trust God no matter what."
- "What do you think is the wisest choice in this situation?"
- "If you were them, how do you think you would want to be treated?"
- Have you read anything in the Bible that means a lot to you right now?" (Talk about the Bible)
- "Did you know that the Bible was written as 66 different books, but they tell one story?"
- (Connect the dots between the stories to give a bigger context.)

05

THE PHASE WHEN FRIENDS ARE “BEST FRIENDS”,
GAMES ARE FOR COMPETITION,
AND YOUR CONFIDENT KID WILL INSIST, “I’VE GOT THIS!”

PHYSICALLY

- Continues losing baby teeth including molars (9-12 years).
- Improves in speed, force, and body control.
- Needs outdoor time and physical challenges.
- May show signs of early puberty; changes in weight and height (girls, 8-9; boys 9-12 years).
- Needs 10-11 hours of sleep each night.

MENTALLY

- Very skilled in memorizing facts.
- May enjoy collecting (cards, rocks, coins, etc.).
- Able to collaborate on rules and consequences.
- Beginning to understand abstract concepts.
- Enjoys problem solving.

SOCIALLY

- Enjoys cooperative and group games.
- Desires more personal privacy.
- Often thrives in competitive situations.
- Benefits from having a same-gender best friend.
- May be interested in or curious about opposite-gender relationships (but rarely admits it).

EMOTIONALLY

- Tends to be confident and content.
- May begin to be embarrassed about their body.
- Needs to experience moderate failure and consequences to build resilience.
- Wants to be seen as “independent” and “mature.”
- May be drawn to humanitarian causes and enjoy service opportunities.
